More efficient resource management, provide basis for improved sustainability and creation of plastic free campus to evolve health consciousness among the stakeholders are needed to be strengthened. Impart environmental education through systematic environmental management approach and improving environmental standards by making a benchmark for environmental protection initiatives are being assessed. Best practices followed on green and ecofriendly campus initiatives in the Organization listed and disseminated among the stakeholders are noted. Recommendations for improving the green and ecofriendly atmosphere including green skills development programme initiatives, planning and efforts taken in the campus after audit report to improve further are well taken (Rajalakshmi et al., 2021).

3. Role of Educational Institutions in India

Academic and Administrative Audit (AAA) is playing important role in improving quality of education across the world. AAA is widely applied to evaluate the performance of the various departments and Institution and give suggestions for further improvementof the quality of teaching, research, administration, and curricular and extra-curricular activities. The monitoring and evaluation of the institutional processes require a carefully structured system of internal and external review. The Institution undertake continuous AAA and undergoing External Quality Assurance process to continuously strive for excellence. In view of providing green with eco-friendly atmosphere to the stakeholders, Educational institutions are focussed on establishing and maintenance of eco-friendly campus without harming the environment. In addition to that a quality education may be provided to the students by creating an amicable atmosphere with a beautiful education ecosystem. A clean and healthy surrounding in an Organization determine the effective learning and provides a favourable learning environment to the students. Educational institutions are insisted by both Central and State Governments to provide eco-friendly atmosphere to the stakeholders (Choy and Karudan, 2016). In addition, all the Educational institutions are asked to save the environment for future generations and to solve the problems associated with environment through Environmental Education. Implementation of Swachh Bharath Abhiyan Scheme by the Indian Government through Educational institutions imparted neat and clean environment at tribal, rural and urban areas across the country. Seminar, Conference, Workshop, training and awareness programmes on Biodiversity conservation education, environmental awareness programmes, etc. may be conducted periodically by the Management and Administrative people of an Organization to the stakeholders.

Academic and administrative auditing is a kind of professional tool to identify organization's academic performance aligning with its policies and compliances of the Government guidelines. This audit process is definitely useful for the Educational institutions to offer quality education to the students. The auditing report may be useful to maintain the eco-friendly campus in a sustainable manner and can give eco-friendly atmosphere to the students and staff members. This audit is like an official examination of an organization's campus as per the Government guidelines covering University Grant Commission (UGC) and All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE) and Medical Council of India (MCI). Audit report may be useful to improve the organization's campus significantly by following the recommendations and suggestions specified in the report. Conducting these kinds of audits is no longer an option but a sound precaution and a proactive measure in today's heavily regulated conditions. In this academic and administrative audit, green campus, environment, energy, soil and water, hygiene and waste management audits are also included with respect to maintain a green campus with ecofriendly atmosphere along with a conduct of flora and fauna in the campus and study of carbon footprint in which carbon dioxide level is assessed in the campus (Cardozo et al., 2019).

4. Aims and Objectives of an Academic & Administrative Audit (AAA)

An academic & administrative audit (AAA) is a useful tool for measuring and implementing administrative rules and regulations including the management plans of an academic Institution. The aim of this audit is to provide the necessary leadership and supervision in studying, planning, improving, coordinating, and evaluating of the various academic programmes and in handling of the problem areas that materialize in a proper way. The IQAC undertake AAA to monitor and evaluate the institutional process through systematic internal and external reviews. The AAA is a peer review process including a self-study and a site visit by peers from inside and outside the institution. The purpose of an academic audit is to encourage programs, departments and the institution to evaluate their quality processes and standards based on predetermined benchmarks and to suggest activities required to produce, assure, and regularly improve the quality of the whole system in place including curricular and co-curricular programmes and activities and the infrastructure and support services.

Academic Audit:- Academic audit can be understood as a scientific and systematic method of reviewing the quality of academic process in the institution. It is related with the quality assurance and enhancing the quality of academic activities in Higher Education Institutions (HEIs). Designing effective teaching and learning processes and evaluation of Course and Programme Outcomes as per the outcome based education which in turn useful to develop the student assessment in a sustainable manner. Assuring quality education by implementation of co-curricular and extracurricular activities in a big way to foster the students to work in any environment.

Administrative Audit:- It can be defined as a process of evaluating the efficiency and effectiveness of the administrative procedure. It includes assessment of policies, strategies & functions of the various administrative departments, control of the overall administrative system etc. It is to understand the existing system and assess the strengths and weaknesses of the Departments and Administrative Units and to suggest the methods for improvement and for overcoming the weaknesses. Identification of the bottlenecks in the existing administrative mechanisms and to identify the opportunities for academic reforms, administrative reforms and examination reforms etc. will be undertaken. In addition, it is to evaluate the optimum utilization of financial and other resources including to suggest the methods for continuous improvement of quality keeping in mind criteria and reports by NBA, NAAC and other bodies.

The following major objectives are taken into consideration while implementing the AAA at Department and Institution level.

- The AAA is to encourage reviews about the Educational Institutions from the peers that are inside and outside of the Institutions by visiting the sites and conducting a self-study about the processes carried out there.
- This helps them to ensure the quality of the standards in comparison with the previously set benchmarks by the NAAC / NBA / other Accreditation Bodies. Further, the Institutes get an opportunity to understand the shortcomings and improve the quality of education of the various processes and systems of the Institutions.
- This includes evaluation of all the curricular and co-curricular programmes and activities which eventually helps the Institutes to maintain the high education standards on a long-term basis for future prospects.
- The purpose of the Academic and Administrative Audit is to evaluate the performance of the various Departments and Institution and give suggestions for further improvement of the quality of teaching, research, administration, and curricular and extra-curricular activities.
- It is useful to prepare a Self Study Report (SSR) for the purpose of Institution / Department grading which aims to encourage self-evaluation, accountability, research, and innovation in teaching and learning.
- It will also help to create healthy competition in curricular and extracurricular activities among the Institutions / Departments. The grading will be performed based on the valid documents and question wise as per the following criteria.

- To ensure the facilities of sufficient ventilation, napkin disposal and waste management in the campus.

5. Benefits of an Academic & Administrative Audit

The Department is requested to submit a Self-Study Report (SSR) of its performance during the academic year for the purpose of Institutional / Department grading. The grading aims to encourage self-evaluation, accountability, research, consultancy services and innovation in teaching and learning. It will also help to create healthy competition in curricular and extracurricular activities among departments. The grading will be performed based on the following criteria (Rajalakshmi et al., 2021). All claims should be supported by valid documents. All claims should be self-evaluated, question wise as per the evaluation chart attached. The NAAC expects the institutions to undertake Academic and Administrative Audit (AAA) to monitor and evaluate the institutional process through systematic internal and external reviews. In order to introduce academic reforms, review their progress and support reforms in the respective Higher Education Institutions (HEIs), it was necessary to implement AAA. It is a peer review process including a self-study and a site visit by peers from inside and outside the institution. The purpose of an academic audit is to encourage programmes, departments and the institution to evaluate their quality processes and standards based on predetermined benchmarks and to suggest activities required to produce, assure, and regularly improve the quality of the whole system in place including curricular and co-curricular programmes and activities and the infrastructure and support services (Cabrera et al., 2010).

In the process of evaluation, the quality of education in the Higher Education Institutes and makes sure that the colleges are offering top-class education for the students in all aspects such as research, projects, internships, classes, job opportunities, and others. Under this, Process the colleges to sign an AAA in which the Institute / Department has to assess and monitor their processes with a well-planned system of internal and external reviews. To bring new academic reforms and keep track of the progress, and support reforms of the Higher Education Institutes (HEIs), the implementation of academic and administrative audits of colleges has become an important aspect (Buckman et al., 2014).

The advantages of an academic & administrative audit are manifold such as it helps in eliminating unnecessary workload and dwells mainly on those essentially required for the success of a student's career. On the other hand, it also helps in clarifying their roles and responsibilities and thus avoids conflicts in teachers. It ensures availability of well-rounded students who can contribute from day one itself in case of employers. Similarly, for the Administrators, it gives an insight into the overall quality of the institution including its strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats. It ensures the proper use and effectiveness of the processes, systems, infrastructure, practices, infrastructure, HR and facilities in the practice of the institution and to implement corrective measures. Focus on teaching-learning and evaluation process, how teachers teach (both conventional and innovative), how students learn (both formal and informal), and how best the students are assessed (both for life and career). Define quality in terms of learning outcomes such as programme outcomes (PO), programme specific outcome (PSO) and course outcome (CO) mapping which may be aligned with learning objectives (Bae and Seol, 2006). Continuous improvement is needed in which continually and consciously strive to improve for the total quality development of the students, teachers and the institution (Shriberg, 2002). Good Governance is playing important in which hierarchy, administrative procedures and practices, systems, HR and other policies, transparent financial management, complaint resolution mechanism, etc. are included in the AAA. The accomplishment of the needs of the various stakeholders such as students, parents, teachers and staff members, statutory authorities, society and the community in case of public perception.

6. Procedures followed in an Academic and Administrative Audit

NAAC has prescribed a specific methodology and guidelines for conducting Academic & Administrative Audit (AAA) in the Institutions. Generally, there are two types of AAA such as 'Internal AAA' and 'External AAA'. With the approval of the authorities, the IQAC of the respective institution can evolve strategies and procedures for conducting the audit, on the basis of their requirements and in line with the seven criteria fixed by the NAAC. Internal Audit shall be done by IQAC of the Institutions. Every Institution is expected to conduct internal AAA at regular intervals to review the programmes and activities at the department level and the institution as a whole. The external AAA is to be done in the institution by external peers / experts. Auditors are primarily teachers who have experience and/or training on academic quality systems, processes and strategies and audit tactics and methodologies. The External Audit team, in the beginning, will meet and interact with the Management, Management Representative, Vice-Chancellor, Registrar, Principal, Chief Executive Officer and the IQAC team to collect the details of the programmes and activities being conducted/ undertaken during the period of audit. Auditors will then visit all departments and facilities and generally verify the 'Self Study Report' along with supporting documents. They will interact with the Dean / Director / HoD and the teacher in charge of quality assurance and will seek for doubts and clarifications if any. After conducting the audit in all the departments and facilities, the audit team will sit with the IQAC team to obtain further details, documents and clarifications (Leon-Fernandez and Dominguez-Vilches, 2015). Before the exit meeting, the external audit team will again interact with the Management, Management Representative, Vice-Chancellor, Registrar, Principal, Chief Executive Officer, Dean, Director and the IQAC team and present the brief observations and findings of the audit. Both parties of internal and external audit team can express their views and analysis on the observations and findings of the audit.

The institution has evolved its own guidelines and methodology by learning from good practices followed by leading institutions within and outside India. The successful practices are adapted to suit specific context and requirement of the institution on various aspects such as 1) periodicity, 2) selection of peers / experts and 3) process. Periodicity illustrates the institution should undertake the AAA exercise on bi- annual basis; an internal exercise twice a year and involvement of external peers once in a year. Selection of peers / experts illustrates involvement of the senior faculty members from the institution who command respect from faculty on the basis of their credentials such as academic distinctions, experience in accreditation work such as NAAC and NBA or similar bodies and professionalism, are selected as internal auditors for AAA. Process illustrates the institution has devised its own process and formats with some changes defined by the accreditation bodies like NAAC and NBA. The main focuses of the defined processes are teaching-learning and evaluation process, define quality in terms of learning outcomes, develop research culture, continuity and consistency based on the vision and mission of the institution, application of best practices suited to the institution and the departments, community orientation and public perception, alumni, training, placement and good governance.

6.1. Stages of the AAA process

Stages of the academic and administrative audit process involve the following stages: 1) Preparing the "Self-study Report" with evidence-based documentation, 2) Internal peer review and evaluation of the self-study report, 3) Modifying the self-study report based on the internal peer, 4) Implementing the suggestions and rec review report, 5) External Peer review/ audit by the external audit team and 6) Implementing the suggestions and recommendations of the external peer audit. Each Institution / department shall prepare a self-study report, based on the latest seven NAAC criteria, of their respective departments. It shall include all the programmes and activities of the department with supporting documents/ evidence. Give emphasis to the following points:

- The Course plan and Teaching plan along with the programme architecture and logic prepared in the Annual Academic Planning meeting is to be given with due importance
- Innovations implemented for the teaching, learning and evaluation
- Work Diary, Class Diary and Monthly Performance Report (MPR) along with its analysis of the teachers
- Strategies put into practice for the implementation of Outcome-Based Learning (OBE) and PO, PSO and CO mapping
- Remedial coaching, Mentoring and counselling, programmes and activities
- Research (including Major and Minor Research), Publication, Consultancy, Project, Tie-ups and collaboration, Joint programmes, etc.

Checklist for Preparing AAA Audit Reports

1. Placements and internship opportunities for students

2. Workshops, presentations & conferences by renowned speakers

3. Alumni activities and resource mobilization

4. Counseling, coaching, guidance & therapy sessions

5. Practical applications and research equipment and infrastructure

6. Entrepreneurial activities and startups by students

7. Social work such as waste management and green initiative

8. Innovation in teaching and evaluation

9. Teacher's performance, achievements and appraisal

10. Annual teaching plan and program architecture

6.2. Review by Internal Teams/Peers

Once the yearly / periodic Self-study Report with evidence-based documentation is ready, the internal audit team will review it by going to each department, administrative units and facilities. On the basis of their observations, the internal audit team will prepare a report and submit it to the Principal. The Principal after careful check and review will pass it on to the IQAC for implementation of the suggestions and recommendations.

6.3. Modify the self-study report

The IQAC team will carefully study the suggestions and recommendations of the internal audit team and implement and modify the Self Study Report.

6.4. Audit by the external audit team

Once the Self Study Report is modified, the external audit team will be invited to conduct the external AAA. They will prepare a schedule for the AA (model given at Annexure) and will conduct the AAA accordingly in all the departments, administrative units and facilities. On the basis of their visit and observations and discussions with the IQAC Coordinator and the Principal, the external audit team will give a report to the Principal usually in an exit meeting.

6.5. Implement recommendations from the audit

The Registrar of the University and Principal of the College after careful check and review will forward the report of the External Audit team to the IQAC for implementation of the suggestions and recommendations. A detailed plan of action maybe prepared to implement the suggestions in a phased and organised manner.

6.6. Execution of Audit procedures

It should be written in such a way that even a junior auditor will be able to understand what is to be done. For example, avoid vague procedures like 'check goods received notes'. This is vague as it does not explain what is to be examined in the goods received notes. Is it the description of items received, the quantity received or the name of the vendors. The auditor will agree a sample of items from the inventory sheets to theraw material inventory. It is to ensure that the inventory recorded on the sheets actually exists. This will confirm the assertion of existence of inventory as an asset in the financialstatement.

6.7. Research and development

The Management should encourage the research activities among students and staff members in which a large number of new projects along with the stage of development should be taken up. It is agreed that the expenses for research incurred to the invoices and supporting documentation and to inclusion in profit or loss should be documented properly. It should confirm technically feasible and intention to complete theproject by discussion with development managers or review of feasibility reports. Review research reports to confirm the data which has the ability to illustrate the probable futureeconomic benefits to the mankind.
